

Here They Come

Win One for Norway

PAPAGAYO E (2) and driver Ulf Ohlsson used a passing-lane move to win the $1 million Yonkers International Trot in 2:26 over the 1¼-mile distance.

Timoko (4), representing France, was second while U.S. entrant Creatine (1) held on for third after leading for most of the race. Canadian representative Bee A Magician (5) was sixth after traffic trouble. Natural Herbie, the other U.S. representative, was 10th.

It was Norway's first win in the race, which had been on a 20-year hiatus before being revived this year by Yonkers Raceway and the Standardbred Owners Association of New York (SOANY).

WINNER'S CIRCLE: Above left: Papagayo E doesn't like to stop for winner's circle photos, so the Norwegian contingent cheered as he trotted back to the paddock after the win. Above right: Joe Faraldo (far right), SOANY president, presents the Yonkers International trophy to (from left) groom Ragnhild Disen, driver Ulf Ohlsson, and co-owners Claes Sjolín and Tom Andersen.

